Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16, IT IS FURTHER ORDERED THAT the following case management and pretrial order is entered:

1. TRIAL DATE

a. Jury trial will begin on April 6, 2009 at 8:30 a.m. in Courtroom E, 15th Floor, 450
Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94102. Any party who wants to order a daily transcript must 5 Local Rule 26-2.

6 b. Initial expert disclosures shall be made no later than November 21, 2008.

7 Rebuttal expert disclosures shall be made no later than November 28, 2008. All treating physicians who

12 Motions to compel expert discovery must be filed within the time limits contained in Civil Local Rule 13 26-2.14 d. Rule 26(e)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires all parties to 15 supplement or correct their initial disclosures, expert disclosures, pretrial disclosures, and responses to 16 discovery requests under the circumstances itemized in that Rule, and when ordered by the Court. The 17 Court expects that the parties will supplement and/or correct their disclosures promptly when required
18 under that Rule, without the need for a request from opposing counsel. In addition to the general
19 requirements of Rule 26(e)(1), the parties will supplement and/or correct all previously made
20 disclosures and discovery responses 28 days before the fact discovery cutoff date.21 e. Pursuant to Civil L.R. 37-1(b), telephone conferences are available to resolve
22 disputes during a discovery event, such as a deposition, where the resolution during the event likely
23 would result in substantial savings of expense or time.24 f. Privilege logs. If a party withholds information that is responsive to a discovery
25 request, and is otherwise discoverable under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, by claiming that it
26 is privileged, or protected from discovery under the attorney work product doctrine or any other
27 protective doctrine (including, but not limited to, privacy rights), that party shall prepare a "privilege 28 log" (Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)) setting forth the privilege relied upon and specifying separately for each document or for each category of identically situated documents:

1. The name, job title, or capacity of the author;
2. The name, job title, or capacity of each recipient;
3. The date the document was prepared and, if different, the date(s) on which it was sent to or shared with persons other than its author(s);
4. The title and description of the document;
5. The subject matter addressed in the document;
6. The purpose(s) for which it was prepared or communicated; and
7. The specific basis for the claim that it is privileged.

10 The privilege log will be produced as quickly as possible, but no later than 14 days after the 11 discovery responses are due, unless the Court orders otherwise in a particular case.

12 g. In responding to requests for documents and materials under Rule 34 of the 13 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, all parties shall affirmatively state in a written response served on all 14 other parties the full extent to which they will produce materials and shall, promptly after the 15 production, confirm in writing that they have produced all such materials so described that are locatable
16 after a diligent search of all locations at which such materials might plausibly exist.

18 The last day to file a motion, or stipulation and proposed order, to join other parties or to amend 19 the pleadings shall be June 18, 2008.
